World Education Leadership Symposium 2019
25-27 September 2019, Zug
WELS-Info-Email 4 (January 2019)

Reminder Call for Proposals: Submission possible until February 10, 2019

We are happy to have already received so many good proposals. However, as some colleagues inquired, we extend the deadline for Submission of Proposals for the Parallel Program until February 10, 2019 via Conftool.

Please, note that all contributions have to be submitted via Conftool and that you will need to register as a user before you can submit. Participant registration takes place in a second step, also via Conftool.

Feedback on the submitted contribution will be sent out by the 20th of March, 2019. Early reviews (only possible for presenters from overseas who need to plan their travel) will be sent out earlier (as soon as possible).

Information about travel grants for low-income countries and special grants from a foundation for a participation from Europe and Asia will be sent out end of February.

For the last 12 years the Symposium has been the largest international congress in Europe on education leadership. In 2017, 1100 experts from 76 countries around the world discussed what tomorrow's schools should be like. The conference languages are English, French and German; simultaneous translation is provided for the entire Plenary Program. The main languages for the Parallel Program are English and German. This year we will also offer one session in French and one in Spanish.
